OUR NEW PRESIDENT

Congratulations to Marcia Waxman (shown above with her husband, Robert), who was elected president of Congregation Emanu-El at the 2006 annual meeting. The president's term is for three years, with the possibility for re-election.

For more than 30 years Mrs. Waxman has been an involved and dedicated Temple member, starting as an active participant in the Nursery School when her then-two-year-old son, Stephen, was enrolled. Mrs. Waxman's credits include president of the Women's Auxiliary, Temple trustee, and member of the development cabinet and steering committees for both the 150th Anniversary Campaign and the Sanctuary Restoration Capital Campaign.

"Marcia Waxman follows in a tradition of Temple presidents who learned their trade and mastered their skills through long involvements in multiple areas of congregational life," Rabbi Posner said at the annual meeting. "Hers will be an active partnership with everyone in the congregation."

REVERED SOUNDS, SOLEMN REMEMBRANCE

BY CANTOR LORI CORRSIN

After silence, that which comes nearest to expressing the inexpressible is music.

— ALDOUS HUXLEY

ON SEPTEMBER 11, 2006, the glorious sound of our Main Sanctuary organ will be heard in concert once again after a two-year absence. Please join us for an organ recital featuring Temple Emanu-El's two wonderful organists, Pedro d'Aquino and Scott Warren. The program will begin at 6 p.m., following a 5:30 p.m. memorial service led by Rabbi Posner and Cantor Corrsin.

This year marks the fifth anniversary of the September 11th tragedy. One way in which the day will be observed is through a series of citywide concerts organized under the aegis of the September Concert Foundation. Temple Emanu-El has joined with musicians from all over the country to fill the skies with music and to reaffirm our hope for peace. We will celebrate life and our universal humanity through the power of music.

Come hear the magnificent sound of our Temple organ as it once again resounds through the awesome beauty of the newly restored sanctuary.
