SKIRBALL
CORNER

Are you hungry to combine cognitive and experiential learning? Hungry to understand Jewish communities in their broader cultural contexts? Just plain hungry? Join us as we learn about three unique Jewish cuisines—Syrian, Indian and Moroccan—by studying them in reference to the cultures in which they were born.

Course features three lectures and three cooking classes.*

This and 40 other courses make up the Spring Semester at the Skirball Center for Adult Jewish Learning at Temple Emanu-El. Classes begin Tuesday, February 22. To register or for more information, call (212) 507-9580.

TEMPLE EMANU-EL IN FLORIDA

On Friday evening, January 14, 2005, more than 80 members of Congregation Emanu-El and our extended Temple family gathered at The Colony Hotel in Palm Beach, Fla., for the first-ever Palm Beach Sabbath Dinner. Guests included many who are now year-round Florida residents, as well as snowbirds and members who were visiting family in Florida at the time. This special evening also provided a chance to socialize with Rabbi David and Sylvia Posner in a very intimate setting. We look forward to next year's Palm Beach Sabbath Dinner, which will take place on January 13, 2006. Please mark your calendars and plan to be with us for a wonderful evening!
